and August Kammer, an amadeur, at 150.

In this group there are several names that don't often land up with the leaders, especially Bill Creavy, who comes from West Point. Creavy is just one of many young professionals who are developing rapidly and will soon make the faverites ate Batnes and Hagen step lively.

Creavy, driving a beautiful long ball and playing a sure iron game that is characteristic of the paid players, had a wonderful chance to lower the Siwanoy record yesterday. Out in 32, the young West Point procontinued his stoady, accurate shooting on the inwood holes. He needed only a 4 and 5 on the last two holes to break all marks for the links. At the seventeenth the youngster's second putt seemed to be on its way for the part i when the ball suddenly Stopped rolling on the edge of the cip and stayed there partly suspended on the edge. It was a break of lack that often prevents hotable deeds, and in Creavy's case it robbed him of a record. To show the wide possibilities of the old Scottish pastine. Creavy's round yesterday was an improvement of ten strokes over his mittal journey the day before.

Bob McDonald, a Chicago veteran whose form has been considerably off.

Bob McDonald, a Chicago veteran whose form has been considerably off the last few years, takes a great liking to Siwanoy with its chances of low scoring provided one's driving is Strukhl. Big Bob has been performing the most consistent golf of the tournament—a pair of 73's—and he will have a lot to say at the finish.

TRIPLE PLAY FE

TRIPLE PLAY FEATURES hope who persists buzzing around the leaders. This young man only a couple of years ago was a caddy at a triple play was performed by the playmins. Happ of Philadelphia sent a line drive to Shortstop Hornsby, who been been found or two and then blew his chances because of inexperience. At Siwanoy his cards read 71—76, which enabled the youth to stay out in the front positions.

The second round demonstrated one thing if nothing eise—that Walter Hagen basn't his old-time confidence and control. Hagen was down at 70 for his opening round Tuesday and control was strong being with the second in four of the St. Louis Nationals against Philadelphia to delphia yesterday and snuffed out a quaker rally with the bases full. and control. Hagen was down at 70 for his opening round Tuesday and sonly two strokes behind Walker, the leader. This showing made the defending champion a popular favorite in retain his title, but Hagen partially wrecked his opportunity by soaring up to 78 on the second round, a brand of golf that was both brilliant and at times very insteady. Putting used to be Hagen's strong point. He could run 'em in from all parts of the green, but now he fusses and often changes his distance with the result that short putts do not go down. It was this weakness that ran it agen's score up.

Jim Barnes apparently is still feel-ing the effects of winning the nation-ni open at Columbia last week. Al-ways before Long Jim could tear up ways before Long Jim could tear up the Silwanoy co'se. During the meet, however, he has been guilty of some rookle work on different he as of his two rounds. Barnes messed up the fourth hole yesterday where he was twice bunkered and took a six. Again at the long eighteenth James got far off direction on his brassic second, the ball hitting a tree and beuneing clear over to the seventeenth farway. This error resulted in a six. Even with the pair of sixes Barnes corralled a 75.

Like most young stars Gene Sarazen layes to drive the little pill a mile. Ser. 29. Gene is twenty, stocky and built close to the ground. He parks a mighty willop for one so small and the Mitchwillop for one so small and the Mitchcidus and other famed long-distance clouters haven't a great deal on Sarazen, who thinks he's losing length unless the ball travels at least 300 yards.
Sarazen will be a very dangerous performer when he realizes that little putts may have the same value on the score card as long tee shots.

"Irish" Meusel Makes His Debut Urban Shocker Prevents As Giants Beat Pirates Again

New Outfielder Puts Up Good All-Round Game in Real Pitching Duel.

PITTSBURGH, July 28. One of the rarities of the present season was a slight edge on the Pirate wonder, of the G ants over the league leaders, and the series now stands two to one in favor of the Giants. The latter in favor of the Giants. The latter played as great a game as has been witnessed here in some time. Their fielding was superb, and at hat they delivered in the pinches. Young did the best work at bar, getting four hits out of four times up. And two of these were good for extra bases. Nehr was at his best and held the Pirates to seven hits. He was invincible in seven of the eight inning. The only run scored off him came in the seventh inning, when Whitted tripled and scored on Barnhardt's single to centre. The Pirates threatened to score in the ninth, but Nehr never faltered, and with two out and two on bases Barnhardt ended the game by hitting to Rawlings and forcing Whitted at second.

India's match against Japan in the semi-final round of the Davis Cup contest has been postponed for one week, according to announcement by Jaina S. Tyrick, President of the United States Lawn Tennis Association. It is now seneduled to take place at the Onwentia Club, near Chicago, Aug. 18, 19 and 20. This change also involves postponing the final round one week, so that the match awarded to the Newport Lawa Tennis Club will be played at the Ca-sino on Aug. 25, 26 and 27, instead of the dates a week earlier, as originally the dates a week earlier, as originally planned.

This readjustment of the schedule was necessitated by the fire which seriously famaged the Mauretania at its dock at Liverpool. After its unexpected victory over the French team in the match at Paris, S. M. Jacob, Captain of the team representing India, cabled the United States Lawn Tennis Association that his team would sail on the Mauretania July 30. This would have brought them to the United States in ample time for the match at Chicago.
